The United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women) presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to invite them to engage, on a voluntary basis, with the Beijing+30 Action Agenda – a tool to support government efforts to advance gender equality and the rights and empowerment of women and girls. In line with the Political Declaration adopted at CSW69, the Action Agenda supports the full, effective, and accelerated implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action.

Launched in March 2025 in the context of the 30th anniversary of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (Beijing+30), the Action Agenda offers a voluntary, action-oriented approach to drive implementation of existing commitments under the Beijing Platform, the 2030 Agenda – particularly SDG 5 – and the Pact for the Future. Engagement entails no additional reporting, and UN Women stands ready to provide technical support as needed.

The attached overview outlines the Action Agenda's six priority areas, supported by two foundational enablers – gender data and financing. It also places adolescent girls and young women at the center, recognizing their leadership and rights as essential to lasting progress.

Member States may, at their discretion, identify national actions aligned with their own priorities – whether within the scope of the Action Agenda or other relevant normative frameworks – and communicate these to UN Women by 1 September 2025 via email at b30actionagenda@unwomen.org which may also be used for any related inquiries.

UN Women further encourages Member States to formally announce their national actions at the High-Level Meeting on Beijing+30, to be held on 22 September 2025 as part of the 80th Session of the United Nations General Assembly, under the theme: “Recommitting to, resourcing and accelerating the implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action.”

UN Women avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Missions the assurances of its highest consideration.
